

PATENT

Attorney Docket No.: SEID/0019

Express Mail No.: EV 351031190 US

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

[0029] A wall element at least substantially made of cellulose material, comprising two outer layers extending at least substantially parallel to each other, between which an intermediate layer is provided, characterized in that said intermediate layer extends between the outer layers in a zigzag fashion, wherein the parts of the intermediate layer that extend from one outer layer to the other are at least substantially flat.

190837_1